An Ancient Faith for a Modern World

September 2018

From the Rector

Dear Friends,

Here we are once again at the start of our program year! It is an exciting time for me because I am looking forward to new Bible Study classes and new Adult Formation classes. And I am not the only one who is excited! The teachers are getting ready for our Sunday morning classes by getting it set up and ready to roll too! And on Wednesdays we begin our youth group meetings too! Olivia, our youth minister begins leading our Wednesday youth group meetings which is really, really exciting! And finally another piece of exciting news, we are beginning a Men's study and prayer breakfast. It will take place at 9 am in the chapel every other Friday. It will be led by men in the church. It will be a great way to get to know other men and grow in one's faith. So it is not only exciting but fun to see our church begin all our activities again.

I cannot give you a good preview of what all the other classes are going to be covering but I can give you a sneak preview of the Adult Bible study and Adult Formation classes! This year in Adult Bible study we will do a study on who God is. We will begin by looking at the names of God as given to us in the Bible. Names are important. They are a means of self-revelation. I am called Fr. Lance by many in our church; letters come to me as Reverend Lance Wallace. My wife calls me Sweetie, my mom called me Lanny. My children call me Dad; it used to be Daddy. My grandchildren call me Poppy and my friends call me Lance. Names describe and identify how we relate to another. Names are foundational for building a relationship. Throughout the Bible God reveals himself through various names. These names served to identify and describe God. In the first lessons of our study we will look at the different names of God and see how God has revealed himself and how we can understand him better through His name. This is going to be a great study which will help us come to know our God better.

In our first Adult Formation classes we will be studying prayer. Prayer can feel mysteriously difficult, boringly perfunctory, and frustratingly out of our control. Often prayer brings us comfort, but sometimes, especially when there aren't easy resolutions or when our prayers go unanswered, it intensifies and focuses our sense of longing, pain, and care. In Adult Formation classes we will be looking at prayer, the different types of prayer described in the Bible and the different types of prayer in our tradition.

I encourage all of you to get involved in Adult Bible Study and/or Adult Formation. It is important for each of us to continue to grow as Christians. The Apostle Paul says in his letter to the Romans, "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect." Our minds are renewed as we learn more about God and more about what he has told us in the Scriptures.

Also as we begin our program year I encourage you not only to begin learning more of your faith but to get involved and serve in some way. We need people to be greeters at each service. We need people to volunteer to be Scripture readers. We need folks to help with the child care during the 10:30 service. We have many places for service, the Thrift Shop, the Altar Guild, Backpacks ministry, Food Pantry, Pastoral visitation, lawn maintenance, computer operator, choir member and there are many more! Talk to me about serving and get involved!

I am excited about our new program year. I hope you choose to get involved by joining a class and by serving!

Warmly in Christ,

Fr. Lance

The Deacon's Bench

Deacon Ludwig Wallner
VESTMENTS (Part 1)

Eucharistic vestments as the term implies are the vestments worn during the celebration of the Eucharist. The Celebrant, Deacon and LEMs each have a vestment which is somewhat unique to their order.

The Celebrant (here at St. Andrew's) begins vesting by first putting on an Amice. An Amice is a large rectangular piece of white cloth with two ties. The amice is worn at the neck with the ties going around the celebrant's back and tied in the front. The purpose of the amice is to form a collar for the alb.

The next vestment to be worn is the Alb. The alb is usually a white vestment, although some churches use a natural colored material, which covers the person from the neck to the ankles. This vestment is also worn by the deacons and the LEMs. The alb may come with or without a collar (such as the amice) or an attached collar or it may be fitted with a hood.

The alb is fastened at the waist by a rope looking belt known as a Cincture. The deacons and LEMs usually tie the cincture by a simple slip knot on the left side with the ends allowed to hang. The celebrant knots the cincture in the middle and forms a loop on either side of the knot. This creates an opening which allows the celebrant to place the ends of the stole. This fastening of the stole prevents it from shifting during the service.

The next vestment to be put on is the Stole. The stole is a long narrow strip of material, often with religious symbols and is the color of the liturgical season. This vestment is unique to deacons and priests; however deacons wear the stole over the left shoulder so that it crosses the chest and back and is fastened together under the right arm. Priests wear the stole around the neck with the ends hanging down in front. Many priests will thread the ends of their stoles through the cincture to keep it in place.

The final vestment to be put on is the Chasuble. The chasuble is the outermost worn garment and is worn over the rest of the vestments and is unique to the priest. A chasuble is usually an oval-shaped cloak with an opening in the center for the celebrant's head. It is worn like a poncho so that it drapes over the arms, back and chest of the celebrant.

A deacon may wear an outer vestment called a Dalmatic. A dalmatic is a tunic like vestment which is decorated with strips of material that run vertically from front to back and are connected in the front and back by two horizontal strips of the same material. Unlike the chasuble, the dalmatic has sleeves. Dalmatics, like chasubles, are in the liturgical colors of the season.

Sr. Warden's Remarks

Craig Gates, Sr. Warden

Hello Everyone,

The summer has gone by so quickly! I hope you have enjoyed all that the Florida summer offers and that you have seen God's blessings at work in your daily life.

We have been busy with much of our time spent painting, cleaning, doing maintenance and repairs around our campus. Thank you to all who helped with our summer tasks.

We are now looking forward to the September restart of our many ministries. The choir is beginning to practice and our backpack ministry is already serving children in need. Bible Study and adult formation will also be resuming with new and interesting topics as Fr. Lance guides us through the scriptures. Please set aside time for these worthwhile and exciting sessions. Planning committees have been formed and work has begun on the Canterbury Festival scheduled for Saturday, November 3. Many helpers are needed so contact Debbie Smith to volunteer for this exciting event.

Please mark your calendars and plan to attend our annual kickoff luncheon after the 10:30 service on September 9th. The food is always good and the fellowship even better. There will be sign-up sheets in the Narthex so plan to attend and share hamburgers and hotdogs with your fellow parishioners.

This should be an exciting year for St. Andrew's. As always, we offer you the chance to become involved in one or more of our ministries. Many helping hands better serve our church and our community. Please consider contacting your vestry members to offer your services.

We have had many visitors this summer. Please remember to encourage visitors to return by introducing yourself and inviting them back to our church.

May God's blessings be among you.
See you in church.

Jr. Warden's Remarks

Hal Smith, Jr. Warden

As you can see we have had a lot of activity in and around our church and campus this summer. Our sacristy construction is almost completed and we are just waiting on the final bill. We have installed a new drain field for the Coulton Hall Septic System. The tower and the frontage beams in front of the church have been repaired or replaced. We have completed repairs on the gable ends of Krysher Hall. We have replaced air conditioners in the office and in Krysher Hall and have had to repair air conditioners in Coulton Hall and the childcare center. We have also had to replace the kitchen freezer compressor. In addition to these items, you will see a repainted church sign and new letters. As you know, there is always something to fix or do in your home and our church home is no different. We have identified a lot of little projects to complete and hope to complete them before it gets cooler.

As the weather changes and we get ready for fall, let's remember all the families and churches less fortunate than us and thank God for what we have and what we have been able to accomplish this summer. God bless you and God bless our church.

Ministry News

Altar Guild

Glee Gates,
Coordinator

Hello and welcome to our September Chimes! It's great to be back in touch with everyone after the hot summer months. We hope you have enjoyed your summer whether it was filled with adventure or peaceful and serene. Like getting back to school it is time to resume many of our activities that we have taken a break from during the summer.

We are so very thankful we now have space in the Sacristy to call our own. We have overcome many obstacles in coming to its completion but now it is a glorious place to make preparations for The Lord's Table. Like moving into a new home, we have moved things around to make the best use of the space and make everything accessible to everyone who uses it. We thank God for our many blessings.

As a reminder, each week we have the opportunity to honor a loved one, give thanks for a special occasion or accomplishment or commemorate a loved one's death by sponsoring the Altar Flowers or the Presence Light for St. Andrew's. Envelopes are available in the pew pockets or you may contact the church office for more information.

Remember to greet visitors warmly, introduce yourself and invite them to come again. We want everyone to feel welcome and eager to worship with us.

God's blessings to you all!

Pastoral Care Ministry

Janet Crisfield, Facilitator

The Pastoral Care Ministry is dedicated to bringing the presence of Christ to parishioners that are unable to come to regular services either on a temporary or on-going basis.

Many of our members are licensed Lay Eucharistic visitors and bring communion. Some of our members also belong to the Order of Saint Luke and pray and anoint for healing. However, it is not necessary to be or do either. Our goal is to bring the presence of Christ and the caring of our congregation to our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. Many of the visits can consist of a short friendly visit bringing bulletins, newsletters, cards and small gifts, prayer and or reading Bible passages if the parishioner is unable to do so.

Training and screening is required of anyone wishing to join this rewarding and important ministry. If you are interested in learning more please call Janet Crisfield at 352 796-9389 or Father Lance at the church 352 683-2010 .

Reminder: we cannot visit you or your loved one if we do not know you need a visit. The laws and guidelines are very strict and facilities cannot let us know if you are there or not. You or a family member or friend must call the office and let us know. The office staff are very conscientious about letting Father Lance and me know.

If you need or know of a fellow parishioner that could benefit from this ministry please call the church at 352 683-2010.

Sunday School

*Miss Susan,
Miss Colleen &
Miss Jeanie*

Sunday School starts on Sunday, September 9 at 10:15 am in our classroom in Krysher Hall. We are all excited to be an important part of St. Andrew's Sunday Service.

We will introduce ourselves and talk about our summer. Our lesson will be based on the weekly Gospel. We learn much from each other; thoughts, ideas, perceptions and listen to each other's questions.

We look forward to seeing you!

Music Ministry

*Jody Bowes
Music Director*

Welcome to the Fall program year! Choir rehearsals resumed mid-August. We are preparing some wonderful Offertory selections to share with you during the Sunday 10:30 am worship service.

If you love to sing we would love to have you join us for practice on Thursdays at 6 pm in the Krysher Hall music room. The ability to read music is not a requirement, just the enthusiasm to praise God through song!

Sunday School Chorus: Olga Chamorro and I have begun a Children's Chorus that will learn songs each Sunday at 10 am for 15 minutes (before Sunday School starts). Please adjust your Sunday morning schedule to give your children time to join us in the Krysher Hall Music Room for this fun-filled quarter-hour. We will also be learning to play songs on the Choir Chimes. This music will be presented at selected services throughout the program year.

Plan Ahead: Christmas Choir rehearsals begin Saturday October 27 from 1 to 2 pm. Christmas Choir sings on Christmas Eve at the 5:30 pm Family Service.

See you in church!

Youth Group

*Olivia La Cava
Youth Ministry*

Our Youth Group has been busy having fun this summer! Whether it was the beach, movies, kayaking, pajama party, et cetera, the kids have been having a great time! Youth Group meetings kick off for this school year starting on September 12 at 6:00 pm in Krysher Hall. Come join the fun!

Boy Scout Troop 433

Submitted by Jen Balcolm

In June they attended summer camp at camp Shand's in Gainesville. They had a great time and earned a variety of merit badges and worked towards advancing to the next level of scouting.

The boys did two hot dog giveaways at Rural King this summer where customers got free hot dogs and we were able to sell chips and drinks. The money from these were used for some fun activities, including a bowling night, game night and monster golf!

The boys also had a court of honor towards the end of summer where many boys moved up in rank.

Also we had a boy become an Eagle Scout this summer! Congratulations to Kyle! This weekend we are going on a camp out and working on some merit badges.

Please join us on Saturday, Sept 9th for our pancake breakfast. Tickets are $6.00 at the

Please call the office or sign up for a new pictorial directory. Those who had their picture taken may receive a free one. Otherwise, the cost is $4.00 to order one. The order to the publisher will be placed on October 15th.

Also, if you need a name badge, please call the office or sign up in the Narthex. The first badge is free but the replacement badges are $5.00 each. We order at the end of every month.

Men's Prayer Group

Submitted by Craig Gates

We at St. Andrew's are thrilled and excited to announce the formation of our new study and prayer group for men. One key element for a church to grow and prosper in doing God's work is to have a strong group of men to provide leadership. These men lead by modeling Jesus Christ through their thoughts, words, deeds and leadership roles. Together with the full support of Fr. Lance, we hope to invite and initiate spiritual growth opportunities for all men of St. Andrew's Church. We hope to become more foundational to our church and community by coming together with our various gifts, graces and areas of interest.

Our prayer group will begin meeting on a bi-weekly schedule starting on Friday September 14, 2018, at 9:00 a.m. in the side Chapel of the church.

Please consider attending and enjoying this wonderful opportunity to grow spiritually in camaraderie, unity and fellowship!

Ministry Spotlight:

Daughters of the King

Submitted by Jackie Ruth

Mission of the Order:

The mission of the Order is the extension of Christ's Kingdom through Prayer, Service and Evangelism. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, our vision as DOK is to know Jesus Christ, to make him known to others, and to become reflections of God's love throughout the world.

Order vs Organization:

The DOK is organized as a religious order, although we do not live in an enclosed community. Each daughter takes a lifetime vow to live by the Rule of the Order. Our rule of life requires a spiritual discipline of daily prayer, service and evangelism. Because our vow, we refer to ourselves as an order, not an organization. Our bylaws prohibit us from raising funds.

Part of the rule of Prayer is to pray daily:

For the unity of Christ's church.

For the spread of Christ's Kingdom, especially among women and girls.

For God's blessing upon the members of the Order.

For the spiritual growth of the parish and for the clergy of the parish to which the chapter owes allegiance.

For the grace of to follow our Rules and for our own needs.

Daughters of the King meet on the second Saturday of every month at 11:00 am in Krysher Hall.

Parishioner Spotlight: Helen Schwartz

Submitted by Lisa Brooks

She says she goes by the name of "Trouble", but she is a valued member of our church community who knits hats for our Church. Her hats are included in the backpacks for the students we serve at Spring Hill Elementary. Helen Schwartz has been a member since April 3, 1979. If you enter through our church door in the rear on the right hand side, you will see Helen sitting there. When I first arrived at St. Andrews, she greeted me with a smile and the copy of the readings for that Sunday.

She is so good at her craft that she can knit without looking and her hands move at a rapid pace. She enjoys teaching her craft to both the young and not so young of our church. Her smile is infectious. Her hats are included in the backpacks for our children at Spring Hill Elementary.

Thank you Helen for your years of service to the St. Andrews church community.

Should We Sing During Communion?

Submitted by Jody Bowes

Most of us have heard “Those who sing pray twice.” Music offered at worship inspires us either by listening—taking the melodies and words into our hearts and minds—or when appropriate by singing along, feeling the power of the lyrics lift us closer to our Lord and to each other. What about singing during the Communion? The “Communion” hymns in our Episcopal hymnal can be used at any appropriate time including in procession or as Gradual (sequence) hymns.

Our Vestry recently determined that at services where music is offered, we shall offer only instrumental, meditative music as we share the Communion. Since this is a change for us, I wanted to offer some background on why this is an appropriate choice [paraphrased from “Truth for the World” online]:

There are no Biblical references to early Christians singing while sharing the Lord’s Supper.

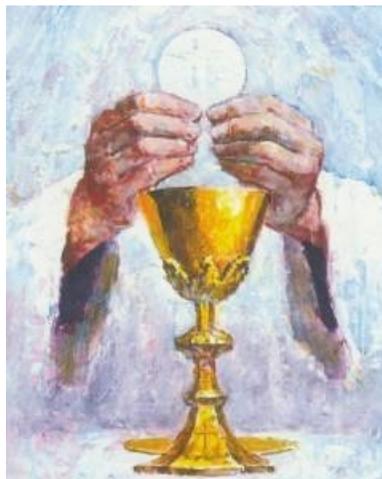

Through singing we speak to, teach and admonish one another (Ephesians 5:19; Colossians 3:16). This involves thoughtful consideration and sincere expression from the heart, and attentiveness to the voices of others. It requires the use of both spirit and mind (I Corinthians 14:15) and touches the lives of those who hear it (Acts 16:25). This reveals two aspects to our singing in worship: giving praise and honor to Almighty God, and edifying each other as we listen and speak to one another in song.

The Lord’s Supper is a communion (sharing) in the body and blood of Jesus in which we who are many are one body (I Corinthians 10:16-17); a memorial where we remember Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross (I Corinthians 11:24-25); a proclamation where we profess the Lord’s death until He comes again (I Corinthians 11:26); and a personal time of self-examination (I Corinthians 11:28) when Christians individually consider the price paid for their sins.

Singing during Communion can create confusion or prevent us from focusing on the appropriate aspects of the Lord’s Supper by distracting those trying to examine themselves. The Apostle Paul reminds us, “Everyone ought to examine themselves before they eat of the bread and drink from the cup.” (I Corinthians 11:28). Paul sought to eliminate confusion and build up the body by restoring purpose and value to worship through the clarity of a meaningful message understandable by all.

Singing and partaking in Communion are two separate acts of worship. It is simply impossible for an individual to properly execute both acts of worship at the same time since they have different requirements.

Please let Fr. Lance or myself know how this new offering of instrumental music during the Lord’s Supper has enhanced your Communion experience. Your thoughts and prayers are, as always, most welcome and appreciated.

Canterbury Festival Update

YEAH...fall is here which means its Canterbury Festival Time. Our event is scheduled for Saturday, November 3rd from 9am to 2pm. Again this year, we will feature local artisans, community services, and our many church sponsored areas in order to raise funds for Outreach.

Our area committee chairs are the following:

- Baked goods—Charlene Moore
- Jewelry—Elke Mullen and Sherri Haun
- Christmas and Holiday sale—Colleen and Rich Kovacs
- Plants and Herbs—Charlene Moore
- Canterbury Crafters—Patti Werner and Carol Tucker
- Hidden treasures sale—Connie Mehr and Jackie Ruth
- Food—Carolyn and Ludwig Wallner
- Gift cards and baskets—Debbie Smith and Jackie Ruth
- Volunteers—Joanne Lillpopp
- Safety and security—Hal Smith, Craig Gates, JP Mullen
- Tools and outdoor equipment—Hal Smith and Craig Gates

We will have gift card baskets along with theme baskets again this year. Currently planned are the following and if you would like to contribute, please contact the chair person.

- Italian Basket—Debbie Smith (complete)
- Wine Basket—Jackie Ruth
- Baby Basket—Debbie Smith
- Chocolate Basket—Colleen Kovacs
- Tea/Coffee Basket—Connie Mehr
- Gift cards and certificates—Glee Gates

We will also have our fabulous Hidden Treasures Sales and everyone is encouraged to contribute something to this sale. We already have some books, dishes, wine decanters, china, linens, craft supplies, and other treasures but we need much more. You can bring by your treasures anytime to the office and if desired, we have the donation letters ready.

So...plan to attend, plan to contribute, plan to buy and plan to volunteer. We need everyone to help make this event a success. Any questions or concerns, give Debbie a call in the office.

Core Values –St. Andrew's Episcopal Church

Faith

*We pattern our lives on the life and teachings of Jesus Christ.

Scripture, prayer, and sacramental worship

*We are grounded in Scripture, prayer, and sacramental worship.

Evangelism

*We proclaim, by word and example God's saving love revealed in Jesus Christ by the Holy Spirit.

Mission

*We reach beyond ourselves to serve all people in our communities and throughout the world.

Reconciliation

*We are a community committed to living in reconciled relationship with God and all people.

Core Purpose: Be Jesus' Witnesses

Bear One Another's Burdens.....

Faith How does my life reflect the life and teachings of Jesus?	Scripture, prayer, and worship How might I be intentional in my study of Scripture, my prayers, and my worship?	Evangelism How do I proclaim by word and example God's saving love revealed in Jesus Christ?	Mission In what ways can I participate in reaching out to serve people in my community &amp; throughout the world?	Reconciliation What can I do, specifically to foster a reconciled relationship with God and all people?
