Parish Chimes

An Ancient Faith for a Modern World

April 2020

From the Rector

Dear Friends,

Would you have guessed that we would all be told to self-quarantine for an indefinite amount of time when we first began Lent six weeks ago? I don't think anyone expected this to happen. Normally this Chimes article would be about the end of our personal observance of Lent and the anticipating of Holy Week. This year, it seems all but certain that we will not be able to observe Holy Week at all. No Palm Sunday celebrations and no Easter services! This feels very strange!

And our current situation is not only strange; it is causing some of us a great deal of stress. Some of us are feeling stress because we are worried about getting this virus or that one of our family members or loved ones may contract it. Some are not so worried but are feeling the stress of being penned in at home. Some are feeling the stress of loneliness. When we are feeling fearful and worried, we need to turn to our Lord and ask Him for help and courage; spend time with God, reading His word and praying. God really does love us and wants to help us in times of need! If you are feeling penned in perhaps you could take walks (keeping 6 feet between you and anyone who may pass by) and connect to our Lord through being with Him in this wonderful world that He created. And if we are feeling lonely, reach out to someone. Pick up the phone and realize that others are lonely too and your voice will bring them comfort just as their voice brings comfort to you.

And carrying this thought a bit further, I think that although we are separated from each other physically, this is an excellent time for all of us to learn to reach out to others via phone, or email, or regular U.S. postal mail. It is a good time to learn to show care for each other. We have grown rather complacent in thinking that we will just see each other next Sunday. But this is a good time to learn to reach out to those in our church. A phone call doesn't have to be long. Just call and ask how they are doing and tell them that you just want him or her to know they are being thought about and prayed for. It is important for people in general and us in particular to care for each other and to know that we are cared for! That is one of the primary messages of the Gospel isn't it? The good news is that God really does care for us! He really is concerned about our individual needs and lives. He so much desires a relationship with us that He was willing to restore that relationship which humanity had destroyed; and He did it at a great and very painful cost on the cross. Our reaching out to each other is a way for us to follow Him; it is a way for us to emulate how He cares for us and it doesn't even cost us much, just some time and effort.

While on the one hand, we all hope that we can get back to a normal schedule soon; I would like us to learn from this time and even change our behavior. If we are able to do this, this Lenten season will have been a blessing from God! Keep safe, keep praying for St. Andrew's and call someone—perhaps call that person who sits close to you in church. (Oh, and don't forget to wash your hands!)

Warmly in Christ,

Fr. Lance+

Sr. Warden's Remarks

Mike Ludwell, Sr. Warden

This year Lent is proving to be very different from past Lenten practices. Rather than gather together, we are asked to do a great deal of personal reflection and preparation. For me, it is a time when the familiar statements "could have, should have, would have" come into focus. I think of all services I could have done for others. Then I think of all the things I should have done to help others and strengthen my faith. Finally, comes all I wish I would have done to more closely follow in the footsteps of Jesus. At this writing, Lent has not run its course so there is still opportunity to follow through with renewed determination to work harder.

At times, all of this can seem overwhelming. Bishop Desmond Tutu addressed this when he wrote that, "Hope is being able to see that there is light despite all the darkness." And, so it is. The celebration of the bright light of Jesus' resurrection will arrive on April 12, as a reminder that He drove out the darkness. Wishing you a blessed and special Easter.

On a more secular note, I wanted to let you know that Fr. Lance has a cadre of volunteers who will assist him in the maintenance of the campus and operation of the office as needed. Of course, whenever possible the work at home policy will be in place. Fr. Lance has been strongly encouraged to do the same, and as a congregation, we deeply need him to stay as healthy as possible.

God bless us all and keep us safe.

Treasurer's Tidbits

Connie Mehr

As I write this article, we are in the middle of a pandemic that has affected all of us. We are all trying to do our part to stay healthy and for a lot of you that means staying away from church. But our church remains open and its daily operations continue; we are still incurring our normal expenses. As such, I encourage everyone to please keep up with your pledges, even if you are not attending church. As mentioned in Fr. Lance's pastoral letter to the congregation, you can give online or mail your check to the office.

Quarterly statements (Jan-March) will not be mailed out. If you want/need a quarterly statement, please let me know and I will be happy to provide one for you. Please feel free to contact me at the church if you have any questions or concerns about your pledge or the budget.

Ministry News

Altar Guild

Glee Gates,
Coordinator

Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not let them be afraid. (John 14:27)

How many times have we read or heard these words? Today as we are "social distancing" to avoid falling prey to the COVID-19 virus, we must stay positive and not let our hearts be troubled. Many places in scripture tell us not to worry. As a congregation, we need to pray for each other and for the safety of our church, our leaders, our community and our world. Reach out to each other, especially to those who are alone. Call on the phone, email, send a note, face book, face time, tweet, twitter or by whatever means technology provides. As God keeps us in His loving care so should we keep each other free from loneliness, seclusion and isolation until we are able to gather again to worship our Lord God together.

Until we meet again be safe, stay well and know that God's love surrounds you.

Pastoral Care

Janet Crisfield,
Facilitator

The Pastoral Care Ministry is dedicated to bringing the presence of Christ to parishioners that are unable to come to regular services either on a temporary or on-going basis. Many of our members are licensed Lay Eucharistic Visitors and bring communion. Some of our members also belong to the Order of Saint Luke and pray and anoint for healing. However, it is not necessary to be or do either. Our goal is to bring the presence of Christ and the caring of our congregation to our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. Many of the visits can consist of a short friendly visit bringing bulletins, newsletters, cards and small gifts, prayer and or reading

Bible passages if the parishioner is unable to do so.

Due to the Corona virus we did not make any visits the last two weeks in March. During April we will continue to follow the CDC and Florida guidelines for visits. As soon as we can we will resume visiting.

The good news is that we are orienting and training two new members; Carolyn Small and Zelma Blair.

They will be introducing themselves in the coming months

Training and screening is required of anyone wishing to join this rewarding and important ministry. If you are interested in learning more please call Janet Crisfield at (352) 796-9389 or Father Lance at the church (352) 683-2010.

Reminder: we cannot visit you or your loved one if we do not know you need a visit. The laws and guidelines are very strict and facilities cannot let us know if you are there or not. You or a family member or friend must call the office and let us know. The office staff is very conscientious about letting Father Lance and me know. If you need or know of a fellow parishioner that could benefit from this ministry please call the church at (352) 683-2010.

Our next meeting is May 20, 2020
at 12 noon in Krysher Hall.

Sunday School

Miss Susan,
Miss Colleen &
Miss Jeanie

Our group talked about the Transfiguration when Jesus took Peter, James, and John to a mountain top to pray. They saw Moses and Elijah, and Jesus' face changed and his clothes were dazzling white. We played "Simon Says" when we discussed how the devil tried to tempt Jesus. Satan was unsuccessful. We read the book "The Very Hungry Caterpillar" and talked about the concept of hope. We learned about Nicodemus and how the spirit of God enters our hearts quietly. Like Nicodemus, the woman at the well was approached by Jesus. She knew about the well and the water but learned about living water from Jesus.

Living water occurs when there is a thirst in our hearts for the living God.

The Belles of St. Andrew's

Connie Mehr

The Belles had a great time at their St. Patrick's Day Party on March 14. Judy White and Lorraine Yokitis planned a great party with fun games, great decorations and even an Irish toast at the end. We even sang "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling!" And we had some great snacks provided by the attendees.

We had planned to take a trip to the Chasco Fiesta on April 4, but that event has been postponed. We will make other plans for April so watch for the announcements on our online services for more information.

We are cancelling the Discussion Group for the month of April.

If you are a single woman of the church and have not attended any of the Belles' events, I encourage you to do so. We have a lot of fun!
