NOVEMBER 2014

FROM THE RECTOR

Dear Members & Friends of St. Andrew's,

November is a month from the first to the last known for giving thanks. On November 3rd, we observe the Commemoration of All Faithful Departed, also known as All Souls' Day. It is on this day we make a point of remembering those who have passed into the nearer presence of the Lord. And although we simply say their names in the service, it is a time for us to remember and be thankful for their lives. Typically we remember things about their lives when we have funeral services, but it is over the days, weeks, months and even the years that pass that things come to mind about those dearly departed. Those memories may make us smile, even laugh, or they may tug at our hearts. On All Souls' Day we gather those memories up again and thank God for letting us have the time with our departed loved ones that we did.

And then there is the grand Thanksgiving Day itself towards the end of the month. I suspect that for many of us, Thanksgiving Day is a holiday of some stress. A big meal is usually prepared. For some of us company may be coming or at least family is there. For others perhaps there is no one there at home anymore, in which case a different type of stress is possible. In either situation though, Thanksgiving Day should be understood as a gift for us. It is a day that we have been given to be thankful to God for his blessings to us. Do you know that in the Bible one of the main faults God found with his people the Israelites was that they were not thankful? We are told over and over again to be thankful both in the Old Testament and in the New Testament. Is this command given to us because somehow God needs our thanks?

No, God wants us to have thankful hearts, which are the primary source for joy. Do you want to be happy? Well, yeah—everyone does, right? If you and I want to have joy and happiness, then we need to learn to be thankful. And look, we have a whole day set aside for that very purpose!

This month, the Commemoration of All Faithful Departed service is on November 3rd at 11 AM in the Memorial Garden. If you have a name you want read aloud, please make certain that you write the name on the list in the Narthex or that you call Trish, the church secretary, at 352-683-2010. We will also have a Eucharist on Thanksgiving Day at 10 AM. If you are able to come a bit early you will have a perfect place and opportunity to be able to quietly give thanks to God for his blessings to you this past year.

God is so good to us; he is good to us because he loves us. In Ephesians chapter 3 St. Paul prays that we would have the strength to be able to comprehend the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge. My prayer for all of us this November is that we will learn to be more and more thankful to our loving Heavenly Father.

Warmly in Christ,

Fr. Lance+

Sr. Warden's Remarks

Loa Jackson, Sr. Warden

Hello and welcome to fall! Many events are happening this fall at St. Andrew's; it's the place to be! By the time this month's newsletter goes to press, we will have celebrated "Trunk or Treat." But wait, there's more! November will see St. Andrew's celebrating our first Spanish worship service. We will recognize our veterans during the November 9th weekend services. Stewardship Commitment Sunday is also on November 9th, when we present our Pledge gifts as a sign of our faithfulness. Thanksgiving soon follows, when we continue to walk in faith. We thank God for his blessings on us this year, and pray for guidance for the vestry as we prepare next year's budget through your stewardship gifts.

Speaking of our Vestry, at our general meeting in January we will be voting on 4 openings plus 1 alternate position on the Vestry. It is very rewarding to serve and work together with your fellow members for the good of St. Andrew's. If you could or would be able to serve, please respond positively when asked by an outgoing member. You can also contact any Vestry member. We will need to formulate our list by November 15th. Current members you could contact are: Betty Jo McCann, Ester Marion, Harry Calderbank, John Follansbee, John Crouse, Carolyn Wallner, Rick Pederson, myself, and always, Fr. Lance.

Thank you for your consideration and see you in Church!

Loa Jackson, your Sr. Warden.

Dear Fellow St. Andrewians,

A big THANK YOU to everyone who came out for our Fall Clean-Up Day on Oct. 25th. There was lots of fun & fellowship among the falling leaves. A lot was accomplished including window washing, weeding, gardening, mulching, gutter cleanout, repairs, tree branch removal, and other miscellaneous grounds maintenance. The Altar Guild cleaned our Sanctuary. Our Boy Scout troop was a great help, and our sexton Tom Beem and helper Jennifer donated their time as well.

Thanks of course to Cheryl the Hot Dog Chef who provided a wonderful lunch.

We are in good shape going into our church's "New Year" which starts Nov. 30th.

See you all around our beautiful campus!

In God's love,

Rick

FRIENDS of the LIBRARY

Submitted by Deb Wilks

A big welcome to all our St. Andrew's members who were away for the summer, it's good to have you back with us for the fall and winter seasons.

The Friends of the Library held their first meeting Tuesday October 14th. We had a great turnout and welcomed a potential new member. We also had a work time on October 21st to catalog and shelve our many new books. Our next regular meeting will be held November 11th.

The book club met after the library meeting to review "Collected Ghost Stories". Susan Villnow gave a great review complete with props and treats, everyone had a wonderful time, and this act will be hard to follow. We will review "The Writing Circle" by Corinne Demas on Nov. 11th.

Nancy Koehle has graciously agreed to write our articles for the Chimes starting in November. I would like to give a personal thank you from me. All those who would like to join our library or book club or both, please join us in November for a good time:

Library Meeting – 12:30 pm

Book Club – 1:45 pm

The Witt Library in Krysher Hall is open Sundays before & after worship. During the week the key is in the office if the Library door is locked. It contains a wonderful collection of books for all ages.

YOUTH MINISTRY

In September we helped serve the community meal for People Helping People at the Senior Center in Spring Hill.

On Wed. Oct. 22 parishioner Sylvia Hicks came and taught us to tie-dye. We all had a great time creating art on t-shirts!

We're looking forward to our Trunk or Treat on Oct. 29th. We hope you all came and enjoyed yourselves, as it will be over by the time you read this.

We have 2 high school students who will be team leaders and 7 middle school students who will participate in New Beginnings #54 on Nov. 14 - 16. Thanks to those of you who have made donations to help our youth make it to this important event. It's not too late if you would like to help sponsor a young person. Please make you check out to St. Andrew's with the notation "New Beginnings" at the bottom. It costs $100 per child to attend the retreat.

New Beginnings is a faith-based weekend for young people in grades 6 - 8. The retreat is planned and lead by high school students. They listen, speak, encourage and challenge the middle schoolers to look for God in their lives ... and to know that "we are all children of God, we are special, we are loved, and there is nothing we cannot overcome with Christ."

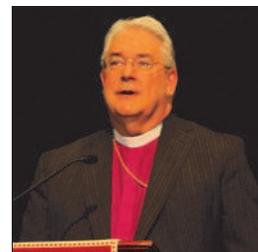

Yours in Christ,

Joanne Lillpopp

News from the 2014 Diocesan Convention

Craig Gates, Barbara Ingram & Betty Jo McCann

The opportunity to worship as a large group was a rejuvenating experience. To best serve our parish, the delegates attended the various workshops that were offered:

Bishop Dabney Smith addressing the Convention

- Insurance covered non-worship activities including thrift shops, schools, food pantries, community meetings, and contractors. Every category does or has applied to us. You will be happy to know we have been in compliance in EVERY area.
- The chancellors reminded us that they are our legal advisors, not our lawyers; but if we have any legal questions we can go to them first. They will advise us on the legalities remembering we are a church governed by church laws, a non-profit organization with specific limitations and/or permits, live in Florida and are to abide by Florida laws. Their expertise allows us to have a comprehensive overview. This session went on to discuss in more detail by-laws of a congregation. This was extremely helpful as it is rec-

CHRISTIAN FORMATION, EDUCATION & MINISTRY

Christian formation and education is a life-long process and is offered in the Anglican tradition of seeking the truth as it is presented to us from the Holy Scriptures and the Book of Common Prayer. You are always invited to become involved in and to make use of St. Andrew's many ministries.

Bible Study

Bible studies with Fr. Lance are on Wednesdays at 1:30 pm & 6 pm in the Library. We are doing a Bible survey that is covering every book of the Bible. Please join us.

Adult Formation

Classes meet Saturdays at 5 pm and Sundays at 9:15 am. Classes run 45 minutes and cover topics dealing with our liturgy and Anglican heritage.

Inquirers Classes

For those interested in becoming members of St. Andrew's. This 4 to 5 week class covers what Episcopalians; our traditions and why we observe them; and what is expected of members. A great class for those new to the Episcopal Church and those uncertain what "we" really believe and why "we" do what we do. Speak to Fr. Lance or watch your weekly bulletin and/or The Parish Chimes for announcements.

Sunday School

Our wonderful group continues to meet every Sunday at 10:15 am. You are always welcome to drop in and join our discussions about the Bible, our church, and our lives from day to day. Input comes from every one there!

—Susan Villnow, Director

The ladies of the Daughters of the King meet on the Second Saturday of the month at 10:30 am in the Library. Our primary goals are prayer, service and evangelism. We pray for the church and its members, the country, and whatever concerns we have. Come see what we're all about. Call Betty Audette at 352-683-2045.

Order of St. Luke

During each service you will find members of The Order of Saint Luke in the rear of the church as you leave the communion rail. They are there to anoint and give prayers for healing.

The next meeting of The Order of Saint Luke is Sunday, October 19th at 12:30pm in the Krysher Hall Library.

If you are interested in joining The Order of Saint Luke, please contact Susan Bruno, Convener, at 352-686-4602 or Father Lance at 352-683-2010.

Altar Guild

Have you seen the calendar? It is almost the holidays again. Time is passing so quickly. Our Altar Guild ladies are doing well and we all would like to invite anyone Male or Female to join our group. I have ordered our Christmas flowers and am thinking about the decorations we have for our church – it seems we just took them down. Hope everyone is have a great fall.

—Gail Niedurny, Altar Guild Director

If you need a ride, call Rick Pederson at (352) 650-4640. If you drive & can help (even once!), give Rick your name & number so he can call when he needs you.

The Backpack Blessings team is in need of someone to help out for about one half-hour each week. At the present time we do not have anyone to deliver the backpacks to Spring Hill Elementary School.

We have had very faithful people helping us for the past few years, but due to the illness of one and the loss of another of our members, we are asking for YOUR help. Can you spare 30 minutes of your time each week to help feed approximately 50 children over the weekend?

We will be so grateful for your help. Either call the church office at 352-683-2010 or Carolyn and Ludwig Wallner at 727-869-1964, or e-mail us at Thewallners@hotmail.com.

Thank you so much.

ommended that a parish review/revise by-laws upon installing a new rector or every 5-7 years, whichever comes first.

- Anti-racism presented many areas in today's world where racism is evident. The attendees of this workshop expanded some of the ideas to a broader sense, i.e., stereotyping people. Although your delegates did not feel this is an issue at St Andrew's, it is good to be aware.
- Safeguarding God's Children training has been streamlined to be completed in less than 4 hours. It has been enhanced to include how to identify possible abusers and the methods they use to find their victims. It still includes the pitfalls of child and elder abuse and how to insure we recognize these.
- The web workshop was very informative, encouraging us to switch our parish website from Digital Faith to Word Press. We are looking into making this move.
- Healthy Churches Creating Healthy People - In every way we should assist in helping each other make healthy choices – not just on Sundays, but throughout the week. This should be especially important for young people and teens who need adult guidance in order to stay out of trouble, and not bow to peer pressure.
- Healing Ministry Restoring Joy - In an aging congregation there is hardly ever a smiling face. It seems as if the joy of worship is missing; however due to advanced age and pain it is hardly expected to see much cheer. We have to overcome this weariness and burnt out feeling among us. In the Church every one should be overflowing with Joy, to restore healing in our lives. A demonstration was given to show the call of the church to the call of duty: We are like empty bottles doing nothing. Add a little water, it just sits there. Add a little Joy detergent, the Joy water begins to flow open the bottle and our JOY OVERFLOWS. As Christians, this is what our lives are supposed to be. "The Joy of the Lord is our strength." John 15: 11

- Anti Racism issues –The war on Racism continues. Some sections of society think they are singled out more than others for discrimination. Young inner-city teens and youths in general feel trapped in never-ending poverty and crime. What can the Church do? We as the body of the Church should unite together and address these issues. We need the Church to stand up for what is right and what is wrong. Too often we hear the Church isn't doing anything.

Convention business: As always the Bishop's address was enlightening. He reviewed his goals from the 2013 convention and brought us up to date on his progress. This will be covered in more detail in the upcoming Southern Cross magazine.

The only resolution to be voted upon was to bring Canon XIX into compliance with Article V, Section 5 of the Constitution of the Diocese. Basically it was electing people to serve in an organization within the Diocese. The canon references serving on the board of Bishop Gray Inn while the constitution article references serving as trustees of the University of the South. Resolution to bring our canons into compliance with constitution passed.

Budget was passed. The asking from Diocese will be 10% of our 2013 operating budget ($31,411) and Capital asking will be 10% of our 2013 capital budget ($375). You will see these figures in our 2015 budget.

Fr Lance was elected to the Standing Committee. This is a council that advises the bishop. In certain circumstances, the Standing Committee is the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese of Southwestern Florida in the absence of the bishop. The Standing Committee is involved in a number of matters including church indebtedness and ordination. Standing Committee members serve three-year terms, and may not serve more than two consecutive terms. An election to fill an unexpired term is counted as a full term.

MUSIC NOTES

Jody Bowes, Minister of Music

We are having a wonderful time rehearsing with our new praise and worship band! If you'd like to join us, we rehearse on Saturdays at 1 pm and Wednesdays at 7 pm.

Thanks to all who attended our "Singing 101" workshop. We had a good mix of attendees from pre-teen to adult, from new to experienced singers. I've received lots of positive feedback and hope to do other half-day seminars in the future. If you have a musical seminar topic you'd like to see at St. Andrew's, let me know. Your input is always appreciated!

Cantata Choir rehearsals have now been moved to Wednesdays at 5:15 pm. Hopefully this day & time will work for everyone. Rehearsals are for one hour only. If you read music and enjoy a challenge, give this group a try!

New Year's Resolutions

The church year begins with Advent, which this year is Sunday, Nov 30th. Can't sing? Can't teach Sunday School anymore? Don't feel you can commit to full time service? Have we got a deal for you! There are several ministries that only take a few extra minutes of your time when you're already at church. What are they? How much time or talent will it take? Keep reading. If interested or want more details call the person listed for additional information.

Greeter – come to church a few minutes early, greet people as they arrive, hand out service bulletins, bring the bread and wine forward during the service. Call Ester Marion at 352-596-5870.

Usher – at the service you normally attend greet people as they arrive, count the attendees, pass the collection plates, stay a few minutes after the service to pick up papers left in pews. Call Paul Popalis for more details at 727-534-1021.

Altar Guild – Each service is supported by this ministry. On Saturday morning the team on duty does a brief cleanup of the sanctuary. For each service the vessels for communion are placed on the altar, removed and cleaned after service, and linens laundered. This requires 2 Saturday morning and 2 service times time every two months. Interested parties would be working with seasoned altar guild persons. Call Gail Niedurny for more details at 352-686-0808.

L.E.M. (Lay Eucharist Ministers) – the persons assisting Fr. Lance in the services. Duties include reading the First and/or Second Lesson, leading the Psalm and/or the Prayers of the People, and being a Chalice bearer (distributing the wine to the people at Communion). For more information regarding instructions and licensing, call Fr. Lance at the church office at 352-683-2010.

My Dear St. Andrew's Friends,

My sorrowful heart has been brightened by the immeasurable outpouring of love, caring, and encouragement that I have received from so many of you as you learned of Joe's passing. Your cards continue to pile up, and I will share all of them with his family.

As you have read, the celebration of Joe's life will take place on Saturday, November 8 at 11 am in the sanctuary, with interment in the Memorial Garden, followed by a reception in the Fellowship Hall.

Joe's family and I look forward to hearing some of your favorite memories of Joe during our time together at the reception.

Thank you again for all your support at this difficult time.
