MARCH 2015

FROM THE RECTOR

Dear Members & Friends of St. Andrew's,
We have once again had a wonderful month here at St. Andrew's. We had a super Shrove Tuesday pancake dinner—thank you to our young people for hosting that once again! We had powerful Ash Wednesday service including our first combination English and Spanish celebration. Fr. Livan from Tampa was here along with many in our Spanish congregation. We heard the gospel in Spanish, the proclamation to a Holy Lent in Spanish, and special music from some of our Spanish musicians. It was great.

Now, once again we are in the season of Lent. We fast, we stop drinking wine or eating chocolate or something we really enjoy – and for what reason? Why do we partake in such masochistic behavior? How can people say to each other, “Have a blessed Lent,” when we are engaging in such behavior?

Lent is actually based upon the forty days of fasting that Jesus himself did right after he was baptized. You recall that as soon as he was baptized by John he went off into the wilderness to be tempted and tested by the Evil One. One of the reasons he did this was to prepare for his public ministry. As soon as he finished this time in the wilderness he started his public preaching, teaching, and healing ministry. What does that have to do with us at Lent, you may ask? Like him, we are preparing ourselves. Since the fourth and fifth century, the early church made time to prepare for Easter. As the years rolled by this time of preparation gradually became the forty days we now have. Just like then, today during Lent we prepare ourselves for Easter. We prepare ourselves for the celebration of our Lord's mighty resurrection and victory over Death. If Ash Wednesday is the day we acknowledge our mortality, Easter is the day we celebrate our immortality! And we are both mortal and immortal, aren't we? We are both physical and spiritual. Our bodies are physical and mortal; our souls, since we have been reborn through Jesus, are immortal and spiritual. Throughout Lent, we work on preparing ourselves for our spiritual, immortal lives. We try to lay aside and put off those parts of our lives that are part of our old mortality. Some of those things include pampering our bodies. We are going to leave these bodies behind! God is going to give us new ones, ones that don't wear out and develop problems like the ones we now have. The flip side of our preparation is to work on strengthening our new spiritual lives; these are the lives we will be living forever. So we work on being loving and patient and kind and courageous, because our new lives will be full of that!

When I came into the Episcopal faith and was introduced to the practice of Lent, I was told that during Lent one was supposed to take something away from your usual routine and then add something to the routine. Usually one would take away a nice thing like chocolate and add something like more prayer time or Bible reading. (Something I suppose one would not ordinarily choose to do.) In a sense this was similar to what I have been saying; but it did not give me a reason as to “why,” other than that it is good for our spiritual growth. But in the early church it was all about preparation for Easter; it was about our celebration of Christ's resurrection and about our new heavenly lives. We are trying to change our focus from the earthly to the heavenly as we prepare for Easter.

So how can we say, “Have a blessed Lent?” We mean that during this time of Lent, may you develop a greater awareness of our coming immortality and see afresh the glory of Christ's mighty resurrection and victory over Death. With that in mind, have a blessed Lent, my dear friends!

Warmly in Christ,

Fr. Lance+

Sr. Warden's Remarks

Loa Jackson, Sr. Warden

I can't bid goodbye to February before I pass on a special Thank You to our Youth Group. We enjoyed a great night on Feb. 17th at our Pancake Supper, which was sponsored by, cooked by, and served by them. Fr. Lance loved his Chocolate Chip pancakes, and we enjoyed the Blueberry as well – best pancakes in town and best service! Thank you Youth Group for a delicious meal!

Your 2015 Vestry met this week, complete with our three new members: Michelle Traudt, Rita Watson-Trapp and Craig Gates. We are all ready with plans for 2015 and are looking forward to a great year.

Finally a word about our Ministries here at St. Andrew's. We serve God by serving others. There is goodness in so many people here at St. Andrew's who give God's love and kindness through helping others. There is also an expression, “Many hands make less work.” That's why we are preparing for a Ministries Fair. Many of you would like to serve in some capacity, but are not sure who to contact. Our Ministries Fair will supply you with that information. We can help you find your niche.

We are preparing lists of our ministries, along with the areas to which they contribute. There will be a list of contact persons and contact numbers for each need. Our plan is to spread the need across many hands so it makes St. Andrew's family a fun place to be. We expect to have this information ready by the end of the month and will pass it on to you. Until then, see you at church.

Loa Jackson, your Sr. Warden

Greetings Fellow St. Andrewians,

Here we are three months into 2015! I think it's going to be a very good, active year for St. Andrew's. There are lots of plans in the works. Of course we've come to learn not all plans go as smoothly as we hope – but here are some of the things we are working on:

One certainty is our “Spring Clean-Up.” This has become an almost fun event (depending on your personal definition of fun). We have gotten so efficient at our clean-ups that we're usually done by lunch time, which will once again be “The Almost Famous Frankfurter Feast.” This “fun filled event” will be March 21st from 8 am to lunch (hopefully around noon). Even if you are not partial to bending and lifting, please join us around 11:30 am to share in the fellowship that is truly St. Andrew's.

We are working on a Multi-Media system for the church. This will include two screens above and behind the altar, and two flat screen monitors for parishioners seated on the sides (or what has been lovingly termed “The Bleachers”). If you have any questions (or donations), see Fr. Lance or myself.

You will soon see some more beauty in the Memorial Gardens. Thanks to Bob and Chris Robertson there will be some new flowers and roses in place before Easter. The Robertsons are responsible for most of the maintenance of The Memorial Gardens, so when you see them don't miss saying “Thanks.” Also in The Memorial Gardens, we are preparing a place to remember those who simply want their ashes scattered.

Remember we do have a “Wish List,” so if there any wish items out there, let me know. One wish has been granted – a new pressure washer found it's way to St. Andrew's. Thanks to Craig Gates we have been assured it works great! There are Alter Guild items and Day Care picnic tables on the wish list, so let's keep wishing (and granting wishes).

I'll close with something I've closed with more times than I care to recall: our New Addition. We are waiting on a couple of issues, but a new Request For Proposal has been drawn up and we will be proceeding. If you have any questions see John Crouse.

Until next month,

In God's love,

Rick

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

2nd Tuesday of the month at 12:30 pm

Next meeting: Tuesday, March 10th

Please Join Us!

Here is a sampling of some of the authors of fiction whose books are on the shelves of your Krysher Hall library:

John Grisham, James Patterson, Judith Mitchel, Nora Roberts.

In addition, your library has religious fiction written by Lahaye Jenkins, Jan Karon, Beverly Lewis, to name a few.

The book we are featuring this month for the younger person is Stone Soup* by Marcia Brown:

First published in 1947, this picture book classic has remained one of Marcia Brown's most popular and enduring books. This story, about three hungry soldiers who outwit the greedy inhabitants of a village into providing them with a feast, is based on an old French tale.

Your library is open Sundays before and after worship and during the week. If the door is locked please go to the office for the key.

ST. ANDREW'S BOOK CLUB

2nd Tuesday of the Month at 1:30 pm

Next meeting: Tuesday, March 10th

Please Join Us . . . All Are Welcome

We celebrated St. Patrick's Day a month early as Nancy Koehle's February book report was on Under the Duvet written by the Irish writer Marion Keyes. The book is a collection of Marion's humorous submissions to Irish newspapers and magazines.

Our March 10th meeting will feature the movie The Butler written by Danny Strong, directed by Lee Daniels:

After leaving the South as a young man and finding employment at an elite hotel in Washington, D.C., Cecil Gaines (Forest Whitaker) gets the opportunity of a lifetime when he is hired as a butler at the White House. Over the course of three decades, Cecil has a front-row seat to history and the inner workings of the Oval Office. However, his commitment to his "First Family" leads to tension at home, alienating his wife (Oprah Winfrey) and causing conflict with his anti-establishment son.

Please join us!

YOUTH MINISTRY

THANK YOU to all who came out to support the youth group by attending the pancake supper! It was a huge success & I think blueberry & chocolate chip pancakes will be on the menu in the future. Thanks again!

MUSIC NOTES

Jody Bowes, Minister of Music

Blessings continue to fall upon our Music Ministry! I recently was introduced to the pastor, Fr. Livan, and several members of our new Spanish congregation. From this first meeting came our first musical collaboration. On Ash Wednesday our Offertory Anthem was presented as a duet in Spanish and English by sisters Olgamarie Chamorro and Yashira Chamorro, accompanied on guitar by Pedro Pena. Olgamarie and Yashira also worked with our choir to learn the proper Spanish pronunciations for our Communion song which was sung by our congregation in Spanish and English. I hope everyone will agree it was a beautiful service, and how nice it was to share in praise and worship with our new Spanish-speaking parishioners. I am looking forward to working with them again soon. God is good!

It is also nice to have our singing snowbirds Tom and Joana Jackson back for their hiatus from the Michigan snow. I am thankful that they are able to share their musical gifts with both our Sanctuary and Cantata choirs. On Feb. 22 our Cantata Choir presented a lovely rendition of Mozart's Ave Verum Corpus. My thanks to these dedicated singers for their hard work and contributions of time and talent to our Music Ministry.

A new Inquirer's Class began on Sun. Feb. 8th at 12:15 pm in the Library. This is a 4-week class for those new to the Episcopal Church and those uncertain what "we" really believe and why "we" do what we do. Covers what Episcopalians believe, our traditions and why we observe them, and what's expected of members. Classes run 30 to 45 minutes. Open to all but necessary if one desires to become a member of St. Andrew's. Watch your bulletin, Chimes, or contact the office for the next class schedule.

Sunday School

Susan Villnow, Director

We have learned about how Jesus' love is stronger than anything, as well as how to demonstrate how you can care for other people. Last week we learned how Jesus took Peter, James and John to a mountaintop where they met Elijah and Moses. Jesus' appearance changed when his clothes became dazzling white; we learned the meaning of the term, "Transfiguration." All are always welcome!

— Miss Susan, Miss Colleen, Miss Jeanie

The ladies of the Daughters of the King meet the Second Saturday of the month at 10:30 am in the Library.

Our primary goals are prayer, service and evangelism. We pray for the church and its members, the country, and whatever concerns we have. Come see what we're about. Call Betty Audette: 352-683-2045.

Order of St. Luke

Saint Andrew's Chapter of the Order of Saint Luke meets every third Sunday of the month at 12:30 pm in the Krysher Hall Library. This year we have a new video series to help us as we study the Healing Ministry of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, as reported in the New Testament.

Our members are available during each service for anointing and healing prayer, at the rear of the church at the end of the Communion sacrament. Please join us at one of our meetings if you are curious about this Healing Ministry. Contact Susan Bruno, Convener, 352-686-4602, or Father Lance for more information.

Altar Guild

"It is good to give thanks to the Lord." Psalm 92:1

Ludwig and Carolyn Wallner. We will cherish and take good care of your special gifts. Thank You both from the Altar Guild and your St. Andrew's family.

We are having a Church Cleaning Day on MARCH 21st from 9 to 11:30 am. Lunch will be provided for all who come. Please come and help clean our church.

We extend a warm welcome our new member, Pat Hubbell. If you would like to join our Altar Guild please call Gail at 686-0808.

PUZZLED

Discovered & Submitted by Deacon Ludwig

You ask me whether I'm High Church,
You ask me whether I'm Low,
I wish you'd tell me the difference,
For I'm sure that I don't know.
I'm just a plain old body,
And my brain works pretty slow;
So I don't know whether I'm High
Church,
And I don't know whether I'm Low.

I'm Trying to be a Christian
In the plain, old-fashioned way
Laid down in my mother's Bible,
And I read it every day;
Our blessed Lord's life in the Gospels,
Or a comforting Psalm of old,
Or a bit from the Revelations
Of the city whose streets are gold.

Then I pray – why, I'm generally praying,
Tho' I don't always kneel or speak out –
But I ask the dear Lord, and keep asking
Till I fear He is all tired out;
A piece of the Litany sometimes,
The Collect, perhaps, for the day,
Or a scrap of a prayer that my mother
So long ago learned me to say.

But now my poor memory's failing,
And often and often I find
That never a prayer from the prayer-book
Will seem to come into my mind.
But I know what I want, and I ask it,
And I make up the words as I go;
Do you think now that shows I ain't
High Church?
Do you think that it means I am Low?

My blessed old husband has left me,
'Tis years since God took him away.
I know he is safe, well, and happy,
And yet, when I kneel down to pray,
Perhaps it is wrong, but I never Leave the old man's name out of my prayer,
And I ask the dear Lord to do for him
What I would do if I was there.

Of course He can do it much better,
But He knows, and He surely won't mind
The worry about her old husband
Of the old woman left here behind.
So I pray, and I pray, for the old man,
And I'm sure that I shall till I die;
So may be that proves I ain't Low Church,
And may be it shows I am High.

My old father was never a Churchman,
But a Scotch Presbyterian saint;
Still, his white head is shining in Heaven,
I don't care who says that it ain't;
To one of our blessed Lord's mansions,
That old man was certain to go;
And now do you think I am High Church?
Are you sure that I ain't pretty Low?

I tell you it's all just a muddle,
Too much for a body like me,
I'll wait till I join my old husband,
And then we shall see what we'll see.
Don't ask me again, if you please, sir,
For really it worries me so;
And I don't know whether I'm
High Church,
And I don't know whether I'm Low.
