CHIMES

MAY 2013

A Note from Fr. Lance

Dear Friends,

We DID have a glorious Easter week and now we are well into the Easter season! The emphasis of Easter season is the resurrected Jesus. For forty days after his resurrection Jesus appeared to his disciples and continued to teach and guide them and then he ascended into heaven. It was an exciting time for the disciples as they began the transition of being disciples (followers) to becoming apostles (sent ones).

It is an exciting time here at St. Andrew's too! We are finishing our study of the epistle of James. After James we will begin the study of the first epistle to the Thessalonians which was the 2nd New Testament book written according to most New Testament scholars. This is the first letter written by St. Paul. This too will be an enjoyable book to study. The study will last between 4 and 6 weeks. In our adult education classes on Saturdays and Sunday mornings we are going through Episcopal traditions and discovering what our tradition believes and has taught and to what we hold and why.

The church has more than educational opportunities though! We have opportunities for ministry to others too! If you are not currently serving anywhere, you have a number of choices! The Thrift Stop is in need of your help; you can serve on the altar guild or as an usher or greeter! You can volunteer to help in the bread ministry or the back-pack ministry, or the youth ministry and Sunday school. There are parishioners who keep the garden area in the front of the church by the little pools and you can help them or adopt some other area of the church if you are one with a green thumb. Lay Eucharist Visitors bring Holy Communion to those parishioners who are homebound or in the hospital. You could be part of this ministry or a Lay Eucharistic Minister who serves in the worship service by reading and serving during Holy Communion. If you love to sing and have a great voice, you can serve in the choir. We have parishioners who serve as receptionists during the week too! Is there a place for YOU to serve? Absolutely! In fact, God has given you gifts and interests and expects you to serve! The compelling fact about service is that we need to serve God and in order for the church to function the church needs people to serve! If you need more information on where you can fit in and serve—talk to me! See you in church!

Warmly in Christ,

Fr. Lance

Have you noticed the songbooks in the pews? Note on the back all the persons involved in collating this booklet. I do believe I have heard more parishioners sing-

Home Visits with Father Lance

Father Lance is in the process of trying to visit all our parishioners. He is eager to meet each and every one of you in your own home. Office volunteers are calling to make appointments.

If you do not already have an appointment, Fr. Lance will catch you in the fall.

ing since these booklets appeared. Thank you Jody and group.

During our "once every five year" safety inspection by a Diocesan representative from Church Insurance, it was recommended we have visual records of our assets. A video or photographs need to be taken and these records stored offsite in a safe place. Could you help? Do you have a video camera? Is photography maybe your hobby? This could be done by anyone – young, old, short, tall. It could be done during the early summer. Sounds like a good project. If you are interested, please call me at the office any Monday, Tuesday or Thursday.

The Tool Kit

Rick Pederson, Jr. Warden

Well it's time for another Junior Warden's report....Which I've been told I'm late again. (Our Senior Warden seems to not have a problem reminding me of that....) (Oh come on, I have to blame someone).

We've had kind of a slow month. You may have noticed some of the bumps on the walkways have been smoothed out, but there are still a couple more we have to take care of. We may have had a slow month....but we had a GREAT day April 27th. Our spring clean-up was a huge success. A very heart felt thanks to everyone who helped: John Gurza, Ciarra German, Thomaz Bamef, L. Wallan, Craig Gates, Glee Gates, Susan Villnow, Victor Whyuman, Mike Farthing, Joseph Balcolm, James Walls, Jane Soares, Pat Trama, Frank Trama, Anthony Zatarak, Helen Schwartz, Julissa Srosse, Jamison Webster, Jackson Webster, Lauren Houghton, Alexis Pletincks, Alivia Houghton, Sarah Lillpopp, Mark Lillpopp, John Walker, Kesler Gerard, Kyle Walker, Sean Roden, Jerry Niedurny, Gail Niedurny, Bill Wright, Loa Jackson, Pete Jackson, Grant Tolbert, Betty Audette, Georgi Gault, Rick Pederson, Cheryl Pederson, John Follansbee, Maureen Follansbee, Lannie Kline,

Carolyn Wallner, Ludwig Wallner.

Some gave their professional talents – like with electrical repairs – some their back aching talent – pulling weeds. Some gave with seeing talents – cleaning windows. Some gave with a talent that will help St. Andrew's be noticed by cleaning our sign.

The thing I'm most thankful for is that everybody gave with the talent of a loving heart. "Thank you" hardly begins to express how much you all mean to St. Andrew's.

There is one person I would like to take a special moment to recognize: our Sexton Tom Beem. Tom donated his time on Saturday, as we all did, but he started at 6 am setting up & coordinating who would be best suited for each task. He did a great job!!! So next time you see Tom...tip your hat...but be careful...if he tips his to you...the glare off his head could cause retinal damage... You have been forewarned.

Thank you to all !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
In God's love,
Rick Pederson

YOUTH GROUP

The Youth group had a surprise Thank You dinner for Jody Bowes at the beach on April 17. They each gave Jody a flower and something they had made for her.

Britany Traudt began it with her poem in rap and Sarah Lillpopp and Lauren Houghton ended it with a song! Jody has done so much for our young people.

We are planning our last meeting until Fall. It will be an overnight in Krysher Hall - we hope!

—Joanne Lillpopp

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

The friends of the Library meeting on April 9th was the last until October 8th. The book club will also be in recess until October 8th. The books for next year will be decided at that time. The members of the library are working hard to organize our library to make it more user friendly. It is still a work in progress and we hope to have it finished in the near future.

For all our church members who like to keep their hands and fingers busy don't forget about the Arts & Crafts section of the library. There are books on knitting, needlepoint, cross-stitch and instruction books on art technique.

Those of you who like to listen to your reading material, we have you covered with books on tape and CDs, so please come in and take a browse Sundays and during the week—the library is never locked.
—Deb Wilks

OPPORTUNITY FOR SERVICE

Our wonderful Thrift Shop is a ministry that serves God, the church and visitors. With the coming of Spring and Summer, many volunteers who faithfully serve God by working in the Thrift Shop, go to other locations leaving many hours when the Thrift Shop may not be staffed. Please consider filling some of these hours to serve God and meet wonderful people. To serve contact Fr. Lance or Rich Kovacs at the Thrift Shop 352-686-1114.

ALTAR GUILD

Thank you for all your hard work at Easter. Summer is almost here, and I need to know when you are going to be away so I can make up the new schedule.

Call me 686 0808 or email me.

Till next month—Gail Niedurny

MUSIC NOTES

After May, our Sanctuary choir takes a well-deserved break until resuming rehearsals at the end of August. This is YOUR opportunity to participate as a "Summer Soloist!" If you would like to plan an instrument or sing (by yourself or with a small group of friends), contact me and we'll set the date! St. Andrew's is blessed with many creative souls. We would love to hear from you.

Our Cantata Choir will continue periodic rehearsals over the summer. If you sing, read music and love a challenge, contact me about an audition for this small but powerful group.

—Jody Bowes, Minister of Music

Pink Envelopes

As most of you know, St. Andrew's Pre-School is closing at the end of 40 years.

There is no way to really say "Thank You" to our dedicated staff, but we would like to in some small way show them our appreciation for all their past efforts.

There will be a "purse" to show our appreciation for each of our teachers.

You may place your donation in the pink envelopes found at the back of the church for this purpose.

Thank you for your generosity.

Thank You Notes

Thank you to all the families who made the delicious soups for dinner on Maundy Thursday. All of the soups I tasted were scrumptious, and the buns were absolutely wonderful... actually spectacular. How lucky the families are who have these talented cooks in their folds and how lucky for St. Andrew's that they shared these talents with us for the dinner. Thank you to the people who put in their time and hard worked in the set up and clearing of the hall. The meal was so enjoyable and so delicious.

Sincerely,
Nancy Koehle

Dear St. Andrew's Family;

My family and I would like to thank you all for the heart-felt compassion on the passing of our Mother: Dorothy Foli. Your concern and sympathy were greatly appreciated.

Thank You,
Richard Davidson and Family

A Note From Betty Audette

Are you looking for a good way to start your day? A good breakfast and exercise is what we hear all the time, but I have a better way!

For many years the Episcopal Church has published a manual of daily Bible readings and devotions.

Some of us cannot imagine starting our day without reading the daily message.

The message is short, but meaningful. You can use it more extensively if you choose. At the bottom of each page it gives you the Psalm of the day and other Bible readings if you choose to look them up.

The new Forward Day By Day covering the months of May, June and July, are in the tract racks now.

The cost to the church for this publication is $.90.

There is a box at each tract rack. No one is there to make change, so a dollar would be helpful if you do not have the change. If the cost is a problem, just take one.

Start your day the best way possible, a few minutes in the presence of God.

Online Humor: Acts 3:28

A woman returned to her home from an evening of church services, when she was startled by an intruder. She caught the man in the act of robbing her home of its valuables and yelled: "Stop! Acts 2:38!" (Repent and be Baptized, in the name of Jesus Christ, so that your sins may be forgiven.)

The burglar stopped in his tracks. The woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done.

As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar:

"Why did you just stand there? All the old lady did was yell a scripture to you."

"Scripture?" replied the burglar, "She said she had an Ax and Two 38s!"

Knowing scripture can save your life - in more ways than one!

CHRISTIAN FORMATION & EDUCATION

Christian formation & education is a life-long process and is offered in the Anglican tradition of seeking the truth from diverse viewpoints, even as our relationship with God through Jesus never wavers. Different viewpoints may be represented at different times.

Experts at Parish Renewal Will Lead Annual Vestry Retreat

From BRIDGES Diocese Newsletter

PARRISH – Two experts at reinventing parish church life will lead the annual Vestry Retreat of the Diocese of Southwest Florida set for Saturday, May 11, 2013.

Consultants Robert Gallagher and Michelle Heyne will address gathered Episcopal members of vestries from across Southwest Florida at the day-long conference at DaySpring Episcopal Center.

Gallagher and Heyne's focus is on the parish church, offering help so that the parish church may "more fully live what it is -- an expression of the Body of Christ, the People of God."

The Washington Post calls Gallagher a "professional church savior." A former parish priest, Gallagher has been a consultant and trainer in religious systems, non-profit organizations and small businesses since 1970. He has been on the staff and/or consultant to ecumenical training organizations, an industrial mission and metropolitan and state councils of churches, and served as the congregational development officer for the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut from 1981-88.

Heyne has been as part of the training team in the Church Development Institute and Shaping the Parish of the Diocese of Washington and in the national programs of each. She has worked in the financial industry for many years as a compliance officer and is currently part of Precedent Consulting.

Their work is centered around the idea that the parish church exists to glorify God, live in the community of the Holy Trinity, and form people Christ so they may be instruments of God's love in their families, with friends, in the workplace, and in civic life. The Post described it as resuscitating houses of worship that are losing people and passion.

In accomplishing this, they believe in bridging ancient and traditional ways in the service of contemporary life.

The retreat is free to vestry members in The Episcopal Diocese of Southwest Florida. The Vestry Retreat will be held at the DaySpring Episcopal Conference Center. Registration and breakfast begins at 8 a.m.; the workshop starts at 9 a.m. and will conclude by 4 p.m. Lunch is included.

Please register by email to Connie Salyers at csalyers@episcopalswfl.org or call (941) 556-0315.

Find out More:

Gallagher and Heyne have set up a special web page for attendees, with links and information on their work and specific plans for the retreat. Visit it at www.congregationaldevelopment.com

Needlepoint Kneelers of St. Andrew's Church

The needlepoint kneelers at the altar rail tell the story of St. Andrew's life with symbols. These kneelers were the work of Evelyn Bacon, Meg Beeley, Margaret Chase, Shirlee Deese, Lois Everard, Alberta Gee, Kate MacDonald, Helen Nouza, Ruth Rubino, Edith Hutton, Helen Wilson and Ruth Atwood.

Each kneeler contains a St. Andrew's cross in the center with a symbol on each side. There is a repeat of one symbol on the adjacent kneeler for continuity. The story begins at the upper left side of the altar rail. In addition to the 15 kneelers, there is a dedicated one for Easter and one for a wedding. The boxing pieces across the front and on the exposed sides are decorated with Greek Key design.
