

FROM THE RECTOR

Dear Friends,

This year is one of those years that begins at a jog and moves into a run almost right away. We had an early Ash Wednesday and on March 20th it will be Palm Sunday and then Easter.

So really we are already half way through our Lenten Season. Things are going well here at St. Andrew's. One of the things we are trying is a new approach to our Scripture reading. We are having our readers rise and come to the front from the congregation. As you know we as Episcopalians are liturgical. Liturgical is an ancient word which means the work or worship of the people. When we worship, we do not simply watch some fellow up front do and say stuff, no, we have a participation in the worship service. It is like a dance where both partners have to do their part in order for it to work well. Thus we have the priest say something and the congregation responds. It is a back and forth with both sides doing their parts in the worship of God. It doesn't work when only one side is doing a part any more than a waltz would work with only one person doing the steps. Being liturgical is in our Episcopal DNA. The people in the congregation are not only vital in worship, they are integral in service as well. As it has been pointed out again and again, the people in our church at St. Andrew's serve. I have never been part of a church where so many are busy serving in one way or another. It is truly wonderful! And that of course is another positive aspect to having readers in the church worship service; it offers another way for people to serve. If you have already volunteered to read, thank you! If you have not but would be interested, please let me know. At this point in the 10:30 service we have enough volunteers so people will read once every two months. In the 8 am service we have readers for once a month and in our Saturday service the rotation is about every month and a half.

Our new addition is coming along very well! The roof is up now so there will be no more flooding in front of the front doors. (Yea!) They are putting in the electricity and plumbing this week. So the building seems to be going up quickly. Perhaps by mid-April we can have our dedication. Hopefully you are as excited as I am to see the progress of the addition.

This past month we had another wedding! This one was unique to my experience because it was a bi-lingual service. Fr. Livan (from St. Francis in Tampa) said the Spanish parts and I said the English parts. Hector Manual Chamorro and Carmen Jeanette Ortiz were married and Fr. Livan and I officiated. We had over one hundred in attendance and it was a very joyful occasion! I am hoping that one day we will have that many and more attending our Spanish service on a regular basis.

In the vestry retreat we discussed having a congregational event (other than worship services) once a month. So we are hoping to do some more social events that will help us to get to know each other better and to have more fun together.

God has been so good to us here at St. Andrew's. I hope you are growing closer to Christ in your daily walk with him.

Warmly in Christ,

Fr. Lance+

Sr. Warden's Remarks

Loa Jackson, Sr. Warden

Hello and welcome to March. The expression is "time flies when you're having fun." Here at St. Andrew's, we must be having fun, because I can't believe it's March and Easter Season already! Once again, be sure and check the calendar for all the activities of Lent and Easter as this is a very busy month for activities.

I have been highlighting various ministries each month, and this month I have picked the Sunday School Ministry. There are so many rewards to serving others in our various ministries, but I like to think that the little ones make you smile the most. They are so full of excitement, questions, and curiosity. They are also the most impressionable and need the guidance of the Bible and its teachings.

We have a real need for any of you that could lend your time to helping teach or just help with the children that attend our Sunday School. We have three main classes. They are made up of the pre-school age of 3-5, those in grades 1-5, and the Junior Inquirers for grades 6 through 12. Sunday School for the two youngest classes begins at 10:15 am, and the Junior Inquirers class (led by Mrs. Joanne Lillpopp) begins at 9:45 am as many of their members also serve as Acolytes.

To be a Sunday School volunteer, there is a mandatory training class, "Safeguarding God's Children," which only requires one day. Please, if you enjoy the kids, and want to stay young at heart, consider this calling. Contact Susan Villnow, myself, or call the church office if you can help.

So until next time, love your neighbor as you love yourself. God Bless you all – See you in church.

Loa Jackson – your Senior Warden.

May God grant you always . . .

A sunbeam to warm you,
a moonbeam to charm you,
a sheltering Angel
so nothing can harm you.
Laughter to cheer you.
Faithful friends near you.
And whenever you pray,
Heaven to hear you.

- An Irish Blessing

FRIENDS of the LIBRARY & BOOK CLUB

Submitted by Nancy Koehle

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY –

Meet the Second Tuesday of the Month at 12:30 pm October through May

Next meeting: Tuesday, March 8th

Some of us will come at 11 am to put new books on the shelves before the meeting.*

A portion of your library's funding comes from the receipts of the books you buy from the book carts located in the Krysher Hall lobby. Hard copies are 50¢ and paperbacks are 25¢. There is a money box located on the side of one of the carts. We also have Bibles that we would like to give to anyone who would like one. We want them to be in someone's home being read instead of on our shelves unread. Please see Joanne Lillpopp if you would like one.

BOOKS OF THE MONTH

This month we are featuring LIBRARY OF THE MONTH. And we declare the winner to be St. Andrew's WITT LIBRARY. On its shelves are books for everyone's reading interests: Religious, Religious Fiction, Devotional, Church History, Religious Biographies, Mystery, Large Print, Youth, Young Children to name a few. Please come and investigate what Witt Library has to offer. If the building is locked just go to the office for the key.

ST. ANDREW'S BOOK CLUB –
2nd Tuesday of the Month at 1:45 pm
Next meeting: Tuesday, March 8th

Our next meeting is March 8th. We will be reviewing "The Screwtape Letters" by C.S. Lewis. Please join us whether you have read the book or not. We always have fun, lively and interesting discussions.

ALTAR GUILD REMINDER

Easter Flower envelopes are in the back of the church at each service. DEADLINE: March 20th. Please get your order in now.

To remember a special person or event at services, you may sponsor our Altar Flowers or Presence Light. Call me at 352-686-0808 and I will help you choose dates and flowers.

We hope you all have a blessed Easter.

Gail Niedurny, Altar Guild Director

YOUTH MINISTRY

Thank you so much to everyone who came out to support our Mardi Gras Pancake Dinner on Tuesday, Feb. 9. We had a great crowd and raised $424 before expenses.

Thanks also to your generous contributions on February's Souper Bowl weekend. We collected just over $400 to use to help the hungry in our community.

Please remember to pray for all the Middle Schoolers (grades 6-8) throughout our Diocese who will attend New Beginnings #59 on March 11–13. We have scholarships available to cover the $100 cost of these weekends. As always, we appreciate your donations that allow our youth to attend these vital programs.

Our youth group continues to meet on Wednesday evenings, beginning with a dinner at 6 pm. Wednesday programs include short Bible studies with Fr. Lance, Faith & Mission studies, games, prayer, music and movies. The evening concludes at 8 pm. Please speak to Joanne Lillpopp, Michelle Traudt, Rita Watson-Trapp or Vonetta Lightburn for more information.

PLAINCHANT PRIMER

Jody Bowes, Minister of Music

Example

intone. reciting note mediation termination

Hap py are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked,* nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

This Lent we returned to our ancient musical roots by "singing" the psalm at the 10:30 am service. We are singing "Plainchant" style: all singers sing the same notes in unison. We are using a "Responsorial" format in which a Cantor (me) sings the first half of each verse, pausing at the asterisk (*); the congregation responds with the second half of the verse.

Where do we get the melodies for these chants? The Anglican church uses a set of tones, some with different "endings." The "ending" is the second half of the chant (the part after the *). The chant tones have very inventive names: "Tone I" through "Tone VIII" plus one called "The Peregrin Tone."

Endings are designated by number, i.e., for a psalm using "Tone III" and "Ending 2" the music would say "Tone III.2."

For plainchant, the words to the psalms are formatted using plain, bold and italic letters to indicate when to change to the next note in the Tone (Bold), and when you are to sing two notes on a single word (italics).

If you look at the music for plainchant, you can see how the Tones are broken-up to allow the words to flow with the melody:

The melody line is divided into two sections (musical 'measures') by a vertical line. The first section is sung before the asterisk (*), the second half is the 'ending.'

The "Intonation" is sung at the very beginning (first verse only) as an "introduction" to the Psalm Tone. The curved line over the second and third notes (and in the middle of the ending) indicates when one word is to be sung under the two connected notes.

The symbol  is a "Reciting Note" – many words are chanted using the same note. The "Mediation" is the conclusion of the first half of the verse (before the *). Some notes are in parenthesis (•) because sometimes they are not needed, depending on how many words are in each line.

The vertical lines under some notes tell us when to change to this note – when you see a bold word, you change to the next note that has a line under

it. The "Termination" is the "Ending" part of the melody.

I hope you're enjoying singing (chanting) the psalms. As always, I appreciate your participation and feedback.

I'd also like to report that I had a wonderful time at Hector & Carmen's wedding on Feb. 6. The service was beautiful and I was very happy with the English and Spanish music selections that Olgamarie, Pedro and myself were able to offer. The reception was equally magical, with Krysher Hall decorated beautifully, a delicious meal and lots of dancing. I hope all of you who attended enjoyed yourselves as much as I did!

CHRISTIAN FORMATION, EDUCATION & MINISTRY

Christian formation and education is a life-long process and is offered in the Anglican tradition of seeking the truth as it is presented to us from the Holy Scriptures and the Book of Common Prayer. You are always invited to become involved in and to make use of St. Andrew's many ministries.

Bible Study

Join Fr. Lance on Wednesdays at 1:30 & 6 pm in the Library. We are finishing our study of the Book of the Revelation this month. Come join us!

Adult Formation

45-minute classes meet Saturdays at 5 pm and Sundays at 9:15 am. Topics cover our liturgy and Anglican heritage. We are currently studying "What is Unique about Christianity in our Society," looking at what makes us unique and examining other faiths in reference to our uniqueness.

Inquirers Classes

For those interested in becoming members of St. Andrew's. A 4 to 5 week class that covers what Episcopalians believe; what our traditions are; and what is expected of our members. A great class for those new to the Episcopal Church and those uncertain what "we" really believe and why "we" do what we do. Speak to Fr. Lance or watch your weekly bulletin and/or The Parish Chimes for announcements.

Sunday School

Susan Villnow, Director

Sunday School classes meet Sunday at 10:15 am. You are always welcome to drop in and join our discussions about the Bible, church, and our daily lives. Input comes from every one and is always encouraged!

Junior Inquirers classes meet Sunday at 9:45 am. Classes are for grades 6 through 12. Taught by Mrs. Joanne Lillpopp.

The ladies of the Daughters of the King meet on the Second Saturday of the month at 10:30 am in the Library. Our primary goals are prayer, service and evangelism. We pray for the church and its members, the country, and whatever concerns we have.

Come see what we're all about. Call the church office at 352-683-2010.

Order of St. Luke

The Order of Saint Luke the Physician meets on the third Sunday of the month at 12:30 in the library. Members also take part in the Healing service every Wednesday. If you are drawn to the Healing Ministry, plan to attend one of our meetings and then make an appointment with Fr. Lance to see if this is the ministry for you.

The members of the Order of Saint Luke are available in the back of the church for anointing and healing prayers at the end of each communion service.

Altar Guild

Gail Niedurny, Director

Liturgy begins and ends with the work of the Altar Guild. To care for the sacred vessels, the bread and the wine, the fair linens and hangings and the candles and torches used for worship in the Sanctuary is far more than a task, it is a true ministry. The contribution of each Altar Guild member is important; together those contributions are a devotion to the greater glory of God.

Please contact Gail Niedurny, Altar Guild Director, at 352-686-0808 if you have any questions or are interested in joining our Altar Guild.

Pastoral Care Ministry

We bring the presence of Christ to the homebound, hospitalized, and those in rehab or extended care facilities. Holy Communion and Anointing for Healing are offered.

Visits may include bringing altar flowers, bulletins, newsletters, cards, small gifts, prayer and a short friendly visit. We meet bi-monthly during the church year.

Training and screening are required. Call Janet Crisfield at 352-796-9389 or Fr. Lance in the church office. If you need or know of a parishioner that could benefit from this ministry please call the office.

Heartline Ministry

We help parishioners who need a ride to a doctor, rehab, etc.

If you need a ride, call Hank McInturff at (352) 597-4642. If you drive & can help (even once!), give Hank your name & number so he can call when he needs you.

Music Ministry

Jody Bowes, Minister of Music

Sanctuary Choir (Sept. thru May) sings at the Sunday 10:30 am service. Rehearsals are Thurs. at 6 pm - no experience necessary!

Praise & Worship Band (Sept. thru May) plays at special services; rehearses Wed. at 7 pm. Come if you play an instrument or sing!

Instrumental/Vocal Solos are always welcome. Leave Jody a message at the office or email her at JBowes001@aol.com.

You are not alone

GriefShare

Helps us explore and begin to personally understand the journey of grief. This 13-week program can begin as needed. Contact the office for meeting information (usually held Tuesdays at 3 pm in the library).

DivorceCare meets on Thursday evenings, 7 - 8:30pm in classrooms 3 & 4 of the Cabrini Education Center behind St. Frances Cabrini Church on Mariner Blvd. Join us if you are divorced, separated, or hurting from a failed relationship. This is a Christian support group. Contact the office for further information.

Bereavement Barbara Ingram, Chair

"Blessed are those that mourn, for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4

St. Andrew's Bereavement Ministry serves parishioners who have suffered a loss. We prepare a beautiful reception in our Parish Hall as we celebrate the going home of their loved one. To be part of this special ministry, call the church office (352-683-2010) and leave a message for Barbara Ingram.

Samantha Got the Gold!

First place winners Ashley Gentz (Left) & Samantha Traudt

To all of you who sponsored St. Andrew's Samantha Traudt to state weightlifting championships on Feb. 5th, THANK YOU! Sami finished in first place in her class, and established new personal bests across the board. It was also one of the most significant dates in Nature Coast Technical High's athletic history. The Lady Sharks returned home with two individual state champions, two more state medalists, and finished as the state runners-up.

Coach Sharon Elliott stated, "It was a surprise. I really didn't expect it. Only four girls medaled but they all did great. It's awesome." Nature Coast finished with 20 team points behind River Ridge's 27. The unprecedented team performance was paced by senior Ashley Gentz and junior Samantha Traudt, both finishing in first place at 129 and 139 pounds, respectively. Sami won by a close margin – only 10 pounds – but her 340 total (160 bench, 180 clean-and-jerk) proved enough to capture gold. "It's amazing to be able to take first at a state meet," she said. "It was definitely one of my best meets. I scratched on one of my lifts on bench but I still got a personal record. So I'm still happy with it... Having that crowd in front of me and my teammates supporting me gave me the adrenaline to do my best."

Coach Elliott cited commitment to weightlifting as the reason for Ashley and Sami's gold medal finishes: "They've worked hard for an entire year. They come in over the summer, they work out all summer long. They really deserve it."

"It was one of the best days we could have had as a team and individually," Sami said. "We didn't think we'd place second, but when we found out it made the day a whole lot better."

SUNDAY COFFEE HOUR: Thanks to all who hosted in January & February. There are a few dates in March & April still to be filled.

In February, our Boy Scout Troop # 433 visited and participated in our Youth Group's "Souper Bowl" celebration. We also thank them for hosting with us and serving that lovely cake which made our fellowship more enjoyable. Thanks to all those who helped clean up after this event.

Easter reminder: Please let us know as soon as possible if you plan to host on Palm Sunday (Mar. 20) or Easter Sunday (Mar. 27). You can also tell Shirley Phillips who is part of this ministry and helps sign-up those who would like to host. Our Coffee Hour consist of fruits, coffee, tea, and beverages. There is a sign up sheet on the table for you to select the date you will host. Please remember our diabetic parishioners. Contact Barbara Ingram (352) 410-7334 with any questions.

— Thanks, and God bless.

A meeting for all Sunday morning Ushers & Greeters is on Sunday, March 6 immediately following the 10:30 service.

Lenten Meditation Booklets are available in the back of the church.

EASTER FLOWER order envelopes are in the back of the church, or contact the church office. Get your order in soon — DEADLINE is MARCH 20th!

CANDY CALL!

We need CANDY—small, wrapped pieces—to fill the plastic Easter eggs that are hidden around campus for our Easter Sunday Egg Hunt.

No chocolate, please (it melts).

Please bring your donations to church or to the office. We have over 1,000 eggs to fill! Contact Michelle Traudt with any questions or give your donations to any of our Sunday School teachers or Youth Group leaders.
